"Experience the Energy"

Don't miss the New England premiere of the off-Broadway hit play by Jesse Eisenberg, star of The Social Network and frequent contributor to The New Yorker magazine. In this comedic drama, David, a young science fiction writer journeys to Poland to stay with his 75 year-old second cousin, Maria, a widowed Holocaust survivor. Stuck on a troublesome draft of novel, David is counting on the change of environment to unblock his creative energy. But Maria is starved for company, as well as for news of her relatives in America, most of whom she has never met. David's ambivalent relationship with his folks back home, plus his desire to be left alone, makes for an awkward cohabitation with Maria. As their bond strengthens, David learns a profound secret about Maria's past that challenges their relationship and teaches them both the meaning of being a family.

Reviewers are saying: "A quirky and heartbreaking meditation on the meaning of family, both across the generations and across the globe."

Before the play, enjoy lunch on your own at the famous Fernwood Restaurant. Menu items include corned beef, tuna melt, beef stroganoff, spinach salad, grilled chicken, fisherman's platter, club sandwiches and so much more.
